Bible study notes collection Hello everybody!! I have recently been given a place on the LIV4Change discipleship school at LIV Village in Durban, South Africa. This means I will be going out to Durban for 6 months from January 2018!! It's a very exciting time, and I've got a lot to do before I head off. In preparation for the trip, I am beginning to organise donations that I can take out with me. Something that I think I will be focusing on is bible study notes, used and new. I was hoping that if you would normally recycle your used bible notes, you may consider passing them on for me to take out. Any age group, male, female, individual or group study notes would be great!!

Thank you in advance!! Imogen Sutherland
