Bookings are now being taken for 'Messy Church - Light up the Darkness'. Who could you invite to join us as we look at light through the Bible? It is essential to book a table for your family through the link below as places are limited.

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/messy-church-light-up-the-darkness-tickets-123995512917>

Please note the following:

- Families will remain at their designated table throughout the morning where all resources and activities will be ready for you
- Children must be supervised at all times
- Adults will have to help children with activities as leaders need to remain socially distanced from the families
- Over 12's must wear face coverings (unless medically exempt)
- There will not be a meal provided at this event so we finish a little earlier than usual
- Please aim to arrive on time so you don't miss out on the fun or instructions

Save the date for the next event 'Messy Church - Journey through Christmas' on Saturday December 5th.

Elections for Stewards and Church Council Representatives at the Annual Church Meeting.

The arrangements for the Annual Church Meeting and the election are in progress. Due to the restrictions necessary due to the pandemic, things are going to take longer than usual and will seem different to normal. We have a list of nominees which will be released as soon as possible when all the necessary GDPR permissions are obtained and are continuing to work through all the other aspects of the preparations.

Updates will be posted as soon as they are available.

Janet McCartney (Secretary to the Church Council.)

Minister Appointments:

Just a reminder that Gary is available for conversation or pastoral calls on Wednesdays - pre-booking preferred. Please respect his day off Friday.

Jackie Berry can be contacted between 9am and 2pm on the phone number listed below.

The Church office answer phone is available during the week and emails are responded to promptly.
